

GOEAST PROJECT MARKET / WIESBADEN, APRIL 19th – 24th, 2012

The PROJECT MARKET is an event for the exchange of project ideas hosted by goEast in cooperation with the Robert Bosch Stiftung. It is an opportunity for young filmmakers from Germany and Eastern Europe to present their ideas and find potential partners to form a team that can apply for the 2013 Co-Production Prize of the Robert Bosch Stiftung.

THE CO-PRODUCTION PRIZE OF THE ROBERT BOSCH STIFTUNG

The Co-Production Prize offers young German filmmakers in the fields of production, directing, camera, and screenwriting the opportunity to carry out a joint project with young filmmakers from Eastern Europe. The Robert Bosch Stiftung funds projects in the categories of animated film, documentary, and short film with up to 70,000 euros each. The awards will be presented at the goEast Film Festival in Wiesbaden. Eligible are co-production teams of young filmmakers representing one Eastern European country and Germany. Only teams may apply. The film should be produced in Germany and the respective partner country, emphasizing the aspect of intercultural exchange. For further information please refer to www.coproductionprize.com.

WHO MAY APPLY TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PROJECT MARKET ?

Young filmmakers and film and media students from Germany and Eastern Europe (excluding Turkey and Greece) in the fields of directing and production may apply to participate in the PROJECT MARKET. Applicants must be between the ages 18 and 35. Directors must submit a project idea that is not yet in production. The language of communication at the PROJECT MARKET is English.

Applicants must be capable of communicating in English.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO SUBMIT?

1. The completed application form
2. a résumé and filmography
3. for applicants from the field of directing: description of the project idea (not more than one page)
4. for applicants from the field of production: reference list of produced films
5. a reference film on DVD

SELECTION PROCEDURE

The deadline for applications is Feb 27th, 2012 (date of postmark). An independent commission will select twenty participants for the PROJECT MARKET. Applicants will be notified of the decision by beginning of March 2012. Those selected to participate in the PROJECT MARKET will be invited to attend the 12th goEast Film Festival (April, 18th to 24th, 2012) in Wiesbaden from April 19th to 25th. Travel, meal, and accommodation expenses will be covered by goEast.

Participants will also participate in the goEast Young Professionals Programme 2012, a training programme for young filmmakers and film and media students which will take place during the festival. It includes various workshops (e.g. on pitching) and conversations with producers on co-productions as well as with editors from TV stations 3sat, ARTE, and ZDF. The goEast Young Professionals Programme allows participants to meet and exchange ideas with nominees for the Co-Production Prize 2012 as well as participants in the goEast students' film competition.
